DETAILED ACTION

The application is related to Japanese Application 2002-341001 filed 11-25-02.

Claims 1-9 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,3-5,7-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Avitall (5,555,883).

Avitall discloses a device (figures 3a, 6b, and 7a) nearly identical to the Applicant's claimed invention. Avitall discloses a sheath (52), an actuating member (18, inter alia), and a tilted wire deployable loop (120, 162).

Note the similarities in the Applicant's figures 1, 2a, 4 and 6 to Avitall's figures 3a, 6b, and 7a.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2, 6, 9, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ellis et al. (6,093,185) or Laufer et al. (6,283,988) or Chia et al. (5,897,554).

Claims 2, 6, 9 describe dimensions, which would have been obvious in light of the prior art and determined (presuming the Applicant's claimed dimensions are optimal) through routine experimentation.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Ellis et al. (6,402,740) (6,093,185) Laufer (6,283,988), Chia et al. (5,897,554), and Avitall (5,263,493) (5,730,704).
